

RWSI GOSPEL CONCERT 25TH FEBRUARY, 2023

Minutes From the Launching of RWSI in Tumba Scene, Tumba Stockholm, Sweden.

We would like to announce that the RWSI official launching on 25th February 2023 was a great success. In spite the opposition, the turn up was amazing.

The audience begun arriving at kl. 16:30 with willing and cheerful hearts to serve in different areas as the needs arose. The auditorium was accessible from kl. 17:30.

The audience were from different countries from including: Sweden, Norway, Uganda, Liberia, Rwanda, Congo, Ethiopia and Tanzania just to mention a few.

Hannah was the MC for the day. She took the scene at exactly kl.18:00. She took us through the different security and well needed information about the venue in case of emergency. Then She shortly presented the agender for the day, presented the different singers and the various gospel artists/ ministers and guests and that were to speak to us.

Pastor Alice from Victors Chapel in Kenya lead us with powerful opening prayers.

After the prayers we were led into praise and worship lead by Lisah Mwangi and the team.

Esther Mwangi came next to share the vision of Rumbling Watersound International (RWSI). In her speech, she informed us on how the RWSI vision begun, how it started and the journey to that point. She also gave us an overview of the future plans with RWSI.

Shortly after, our first artist/singer Mr. Ibrahim Tambe (Sweden/Congo) took the floor and really brought us into the presence of God.

Merlise (Sweden/ Rwanda) picked up from there with her song, “He saved me” in nyarwanda with English translation.

Ayaka Kerali and her family choir (Sweden) lead us with praise and worship.

Alice Sheila Jones (Norway/Liberia) took the scene and the atmosphere was filled with dancing, celebration and praise unto the KING of kings and the LORD of Lords.

It was a great honour to have the Kenyan Ambassador H.E. Dr. Diana Kiambuthi who gave us a short speech. In her speech, she mentioned about the value of unity, growth, our values beside other things.

Following her was Ruth Josefsson (Sweden/Kenya) accompanied by her beautiful daughter. She led us into amazing worship. The audience also joined in in uniform.

Esther Mwangi led us in praise through her songs. The explosive energy she brought into the room enticed everyone on their feet. She also had the honour to introduce to the audience the main guest artist and main Speaker for the day. None other than our beloved Rev. Ruth Wamuyu.

Rev. Ruth Wamuyu (Kenya) our beloved well-known gospel singer around the world a speaker, counselling psychologist, entrepreneur, preacher, founder of Victors Assembly Chapel(VAC) Nairobi, Kenya a TV presenter and the Prayze Factor Award winner- USA.

When Rev. Ruth Wamuyu took the platform, the atmosphere was electrical. She led us into praise and worship backed by the worship team. Many joined her on the scene to praise God while others danced around the auditorium. She shared a short message about the calling of God. She also took the time to Anoint and dedicated Esther Mwangi- the Visioner of RWSI.

Later, she prayed for the congregation who had different needs. Many testimonies came after the result of these.

We thanked the committee for the great work in making sure that the day was a success. Later we cut the RWSI cake and everyone got something to celebrate this big event.

The MC later ended the meeting and everyone went at the launch to take pictures with our main guest Rev. Ruth Wamuyu. Later she was driven away by Chima who was in charge of guest transport.

The event was punctual. We started at exactly kl. 18:00-21:00.

Long after the event was over, people still hanger around to socialize.

For the success of this event, there were very many people that offered their services, time and prayers.

We greatly thank Tumba Scenen for entrusting us with the amazing venue. The also helped with the sound.

Hannah (Lioness Afreeka) was the MC for the day. You made the day colourful and lively. You are a very gifted professional entertainer and am humbled to have worked with you during the RWSI concert.

May God bless Chima who was in charge of transporting the guests to different places at his own cost.

Eva was in charge of the service team. Your dedication to the RWSI ministry is just ever since we started in 2015 is amazing. God Greatly bless you.

Maximilla was in charge of the music to be played. You are also one of the RWSI pillars that has been there from the beginning. Nothing is ever too big or too small that you can't do. God greatly bless you.

Anisa you helped in the service team. You handle everything in your jurisdiction with excellence. God greatly bless you.

Lisah Mwangi was in charge of praise and worship. Together with her team, the transformed the auditorium into a worship centre. You have always been there since we started our RWSI on the streets of Sweden. God Greatly bless you.

Thank you to Pastor Justine who made sure that our guests had something to eat after the event.

Thank you Victoria the amazing delicious cake. God bless the work of your hands.

Thank you to Jerry and his friend Mamba that were in charge of the security team.

Thank you Mr. Munala that was the administrator. God greatly bless you for your services.

Thank you, Mr. Styves, of Africa for hope FM for all the advertisement and support to ensure that as many people as possible came for the event. God Greatly bless you.

Special thank you Ruth Josefsson the assistant co-ordinator. Without you, RWSI would have just been a dream. You believed in the RWSI vision when there was nothing to show. God greatly bless you and your family.

We greatly thank the entire team of Victors Assembly Chapel who accompanied Rev. Ruth Wamuyu to Stockholm for the official launching of RWSI. God greatly bless you all and refill your pockets.

God greatly bless the VAC family for your prayers. You carried this event from start to finish. God greatly bless you.
